

100+ Days of Bloomin' Celebrations

100 YEARS OF BEAUTIFUL HAPPENINGS A "GROWING" SUCCESS STORY!

A tribute to our founders

Dan and Maxcine Quinn

Dan Sr. was a passionate reader and traveler. He started as a green high school graduate learning as he went. Due to his love of every growing thing, he researched daily, and shared that knowledge with those around him. He spoke often at Kingwood Center, Garden Clubs and clubs of all kinds, and Maxcine's joy of cooking complimented his talks with luncheons and tea parties. Dan and Maxcine were invited to many venues because of this sharing, which included the wedding of Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall after working with Louis Bromfield on the landscape designs at what is now Malabar Farm. Their passions are what laid the groundwork for what Willo'dell has evolved into today. Son Dan learned respect for people, family, and community values from his special parents, and we proudly dedicate this 100th anniversary celebration to Dan and Maxcine Quinn, the founders of it all.

THE REASON FOR OUR 100 YEARS OF GREAT SUCCESS...

...OUR LOYAL CUSTOMERS!

A THANK YOU from Dan ...

Nurseries, like people, are varied due to the care and people they are exposed to. It's the people that have given Willo'dell its success and longevity. Through perspiration, inspiration, determination, along with help from my wife Susie, Vice President Paul Frederick, and so many others, especially our hard working and talented employees, Will'odell has grown and thrived. Therefore, I want to use this anniversary as an opportunity to thank everyone that has supported us by purchasing our products, becoming our friends, challenging our thought processes and pushing our limits to become better at what we do. It's people who have given me the guidance to be better every year.

I humbly thank you all. -Dan
